SAMPLE ESSAY

Julia Tutwiler: A True Alabama Hero

There are many types of heroes. There are those who become heroes because of one event in which they demonstrated great courage and saved the lives of others. Others are heroes because of some adversity that they overcame such as losing a leg or being crippled due to an illness. Another type of hero is a person who had an easy life but chose to give that up to help others. That is the type of hero that Julia Tutwiler was.

Julia was born into a fairly wealthy family in Alabama during the mid-1800's. Though she could have had a life of privilege with servants to do her chores, she felt a greater calling and that was to help others. Her first crusade was to improve the conditions in prisons and jails in Alabama. She became aware of how bad things were for prisoners when she went to the jail in Tuscaloosa to check on a neighbor's servant who had been arrested. Julia was shocked at the conditions she saw: no heat in the dead of winter, terrible food and water, plus women and men shared the same cells! For her work to improve conditions in jails and prisons throughout Alabama, she was called the "angel of prisons."

Another one of Julia's crusades was to improve education for girls in Alabama. Traditionally, girls were not sent to school because it "would have been wasted on them" since they were to grow up to be wives and mothers. Girls were taught homemaking skills at home. Julia wanted much more than that for girls. Having an education would give girls choices about their future. She lobbied the state of Alabama to fund girls' schools, one of which she opened and ran for many years. In her later years, she fought to have girls admitted to the University of Alabama so that young women did not have to travel far to receive a college education. Today the girls' freshman dorm at Alabama is named for her.

In her various crusades, whether it was to improve conditions in jails or to make education available to girls, Julia was willing to go places where women were normally not suppose to go such as the Alabama legislature. She displayed great courage in willing to be different and in standing up for what she believed was right even when she was standing alone. She also displayed determination because she continued to fight for her causes even when people told her that she had no chance of reaching her goals.

Thank goodness for heroes like Julia Tutwiler. Because of her, Alabama is a better state today. Conditions in prisons and jails are better than they once were, girls can attend any public school or university in the state, and we have a beautiful state song that she wrote. We all owe her a debt of gratitude.
